

Executive Registry
1-6942

29 March 1951

JS

MEMORANDUM FOR: ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, O/RR

SUBJECT: Attache Briefing

1. The Army and Air Force officers, who were briefed by representatives of your office, were unanimously enthusiastic in their praise for the benefits they achieved from the undertaking. Without hesitation, they said that this was the highlight of their preparation to assume their important foreign posts.

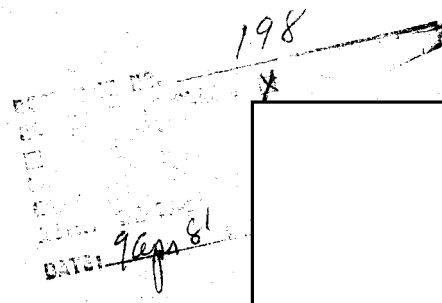

25X1

3. Without "selling" CIA, I am convinced that these efforts not only made friends for our Agency, but also gave the officers just the kind of information which will strengthen the whole intelligence effort.

25X1

ILLEGIB

cc: Mr. W. Jackson, Deputy Director, CIA ✓
Mr. L. Kirkpatrick, Exec. Asst. to the Director, CIA

Continuation

29 March 1951

MEMORANDUM FOR: ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, O/SI

SUBJECT: Attache Briefing

1. The Army and Air Force officers, who were briefed by representatives of your office, were unanimously enthusiastic in their praise for the benefits they achieved from the undertaking. Without hesitation, they said that this was the highlight of their preparation to assume their important foreign posts.

2. Credit for this success is attributable to the cooperation of [redacted] who gave so generously of their time and energy.

3. Without "selling" CIA, I am convinced that their efforts not only made friends for our Agency, but also they gave the officers just the kind of information which will strengthen the whole intelligence effort.

25X1

199 X ILLEGIB

9 April

cc: Mr. W. Jackson, Deputy Director, CIA

Mr. L. Kirkpatrick, [redacted] Approved For Release 2003/07/29 : CIA-RDP80R01300060182-5

RESTRICTED